

Adoptive Parenting

Especially designed for those considering adoption or engaged in adoption proceedings.

Participants will:

- Explore the decision-making process
- Discover ways to initiate various types of adoption
- Look at adoption from the birth parent's & adoptee's point of view
- Examine associated emotional issues associated with infertility and adoption
- Discuss ways to effectively communicate with an adopted child
- Share and gain from the experience of others

Dates: March 14 – April 18, 2011 (Mondays)

Oct. 11 – Nov. 15, 2011 (Tuesdays)

Classes meet for six (6) consecutive sessions.

Time: 7:00 – 9:00 PM

Fee: $60.00

Please call the Childbirth and Family Education Office to register: (937) 395 8600.

A participant comments: "I will be forever grateful for your guidance," and "Through one of the available resources we were able to adopt a healthy 7-month-old infant from Korea. Thank you for being our tour guide! The class was the best $60 investment we ever made."
